FACULTY POSITION IN INTERIOR DESIGN

POSITION: Moore College of Art & Design is seeking to hire a full-time faculty in Interior Design starting in August 2024. Salary commensurate with experience and is subject to the collective bargaining agreement with Moore Federation of Teachers.

ABOUT MOORE: Moore College of Art & Design is a historically all-women's undergraduate college that has evolved to admit nonbinary and trans undergraduates, as well as co-educational continuing education and graduate students. Founded during the original industrial revolution to advance women in new fields, under principles of inclusivity and opportunity, our mission is more relevant than ever, as technology, sustainability, and diverse cultures drive and influence new and existing industries. We strive to create a community of employees and faculty that mirrors our student body and offers a range of academic perspectives in their fields. We welcome candidates who value diversity and support the inclusive culture we seek to nurture at Moore. The world needs Moore. For more information, visit moore.edu and follow us on social media @moorecollegeart.

QUALIFICATIONS: The successful candidate will be an innovative teacher/designer with a terminal degree, (Masters Degree) in Interior Design, Interior Architecture or Architecture or equivalent experience. At least one degree in Interior Design is required. The successful candidate will have at least 3 years of college-level teaching, preferably full-time, with substantial experience teaching at the undergraduate level; and will have experience in developing innovative curriculum. The successful candidate will have an enthusiasm for design excellence, sustainability and interdisciplinary collaboration in teaching and practice; and will demonstrate knowledge of emerging trends in design practice and theory. Five years of significant professional experience in Interior Design is required. Successful candidates will have NCIDQ certification or be in the process of obtaining NCIDQ certification. LEED certification is preferred. Familiarity with CIDA accreditation standards is desirable. Preference will be given to candidates with knowledge of the latest uses of teaching pedagogy and technologies.

DUTIES: Full-time teaching load of 21 credits per academic year with expectation of teaching design studio and in at least one related area of Interior Design such as programming or thesis. Ongoing professional design practice, dynamic recruitment and promotion of the program and both college and departmental committee service is required.

COLLEGE & COMMUNITY: Moore College of Art & Design celebrates 165 years of educating women for careers in the visual arts as the nation’s first and only women’s visual arts college. Moore’s student-focused environment and professionally active faculty form a dynamic community in the heart of Philadelphia’s cultural district. With an enrollment of approximately 400 BFA students, Moore offers 9 majors: Animation & Games Arts, Art Education, Fashion Design, Film & Digital Cinema, Fine Arts, Graphic Design, Illustration, Interior Design and Photography. Moore also offers a graduate program leading to a MA in Art Education with an Emphasis in Inclusive Practices. The Galleries at Moore provide a forum of exploring contemporary art and ideas, enriching the artistic and intellectual climate of the college, the Greater Philadelphia community, and beyond. This is accomplished through diverse innovative exhibitions, free education programs and events for all ages that not only highlight the College as a place to meet, learn, challenge, and create but also support Moore’s mission of educating students in careers in art and design; and publications offering insights into the work of established and emerging regional, national, and international artists and designers.
